5. Talked with Kenneth Belieu and advised him that on [REDACTED] we had had a security clearance as late as February 1957. Also advised him, for his information alone, that she was released from her contract status because of inability to stand the pressures of the particular job but that generally she performed very well. This information was furnished after discussion of the case with [REDACTED] (Security) and [REDACTED]

7. Kenneth Belieu telephoned and discussed the possibility of the Director going to Austin, Texas at Senator Lyndon Johnson's (D., Tex) invitation. (See Memorandum for the Director, dated 27 October on this subject.)

8. Talked with John Lehman, Clerk of the Joint Economic Committee. He asked that we make available to the Committee, several copies of the Director's statement before the Committee's hearings on 13 November one day in advance. He also asked that we have 100-150 copies available for general distribution on 13 November. We are making arrangements for this.
